Warmest congratulations! Your graduation today from The University of British Columbia signals an important milestone in your personal lives and the lives of those who have supported you in your educational efforts. It's also a transformational occasion, one that renders you different in the eyes of the world than you were the day before you officially became a graduate of one of the world's great universities. Irrespective of which degree you have attained, you have made a compelling statement about your skills and character.

You are not merely intelligent; you are also disciplined and resourceful. You are focused and determined in both short-term and long-term endeavors. You are a skilled researcher and an independent thinker. You are a problem solver who can be counted upon to succeed under trying circumstances. You can listen with an open mind to opposing points of view and articulate an intelligent evidence-backed conclusion. You have flourished in an atmosphere of rich diversity. You have collaborated with others to achieve common objectives.

You have acquired the essential prerequisites of leadership, and are now well positioned to chart the course for the next generation of writers, artists, business and health professionals, engineers, lawyers, humanists, scientists and teachers. Wherever you choose to make your contribution, you have the skills to shape society's actions and exert a powerful influence on the coming generations. As you prepare to assume these roles, I hope you will remember the critical role that UBC has played in your preparation. Looking ahead, I hope your educational achievements are a source of confidence as you go about finding solutions to some of our most pressing problems.

I encourage you to maintain your relationship with the university to which you have already dedicated so much time, creativity, and energy. With more than 290,000 graduates spread over 120 countries, the Alumni Association is an invaluable resource for you as you embark on your career. Please take advantage of and contribute to this extraordinary community of alumni who began their professional lives at UBC, and who form a network that stretches around the world and all fields of endeavor.

As for this transformational day, the entire UBC community applauds you on your accomplishments and celebrates with you. Indeed, it is our sincere hope that this is a particularly joyous occasion for you and those who have supported you along the way, and that you will cherish the knowledge that UBC is, and will forever be, your university.

Tuum est.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT AND VICE-CHANCELLOR — STEPHEN J. TOOPE

As I was preparing to write this message, TIME Magazine published its annual list of "the 100 most influential people in the world." They gave the issue eight different covers; I chose the one bearing the image of Malala Yousafzai. Now 15 years old, Yousafzai is the Pakistani girl whose rise to prominence as an advocate for education and women's rights earned her a blog with the BBC and made her the subject of a New York Times documentary film. She was nominated for the Nobel Peace Prize and the International Children's Peace Prize, and was awarded Pakistan's first National Youth Peace Prize. Influence indeed.

Late last year, as you were preparing for fall midterms, she was shot in the head and neck by Taliban gunmen on her way home from school. The attempt to silence her backfired. Yousafzai lived, and this year she returned to school. As TIME reported, "the Taliban almost made Malala a martyr; they succeeded in making her a symbol." Influence of a very different kind.

With the slogan "I am Malala" as the rallying cry, UN Special Envoy for Global Education Gordon Brown launched a petition calling for all children worldwide to be in school by the end of 2015. There are currently 61 million of them who are not. Sixty-one million faces and names that will never appear in TIME's prestigious list. Yet those 61 million turn the notion of influence entirely on its head, for it's their influence that inspired Malala Yousafzai to write, to speak, to agitate ... to live.

How, now, will you use yours? How will you respond to the influences of others—good and bad—upon your life? And what influence will UBC have had on the choices you will make? It is my hope that your years here have helped you turn your innate intelligence toward the beginnings of wisdom; your enormous energy toward discipline; your intellectual skills toward an independence of thought; your curiosity toward a deep respect for diversity; and your individuality toward the possibilities of interdependence.

Today, you join UBC's 290,000+ alumni, an illustrious list that includes heads of state, Olympic athletes, famous authors, artists, actors and inventors, medical pioneers, community builders, and influencers in every field. It also includes thousands more who exert their unique influence daily in the way they live their lives, the grace they show in adversity, and their willingness to be moved to action by the struggles of others.

In the end, I set TIME Magazine aside. Its list was not nearly so compelling to me as the list of names that will be read aloud today. Your names. I look forward to seeing what you do with your influence. Tuum est – It is up to you.

MUSQUEAM WELCOME

On behalf of the Musqueam Indian Band, the Musqueam Band Council welcomes the University of British Columbia's new graduates, their families and friends to the 2013 Annual Spring Congregation.

We are pleased to honour the graduates and extend our congratulations to each and every one of you. We are especially pleased to extend our welcome and congratulations to the increasing number of First Nations students who visit the university, and our traditional lands, for their education.

The accomplishments and contributions of each individual student build the foundation for their future as well as the future of the university and the larger community. These individual accomplishments reflect the talent and diversity among you. Today, the feeling of pride and accomplishment to accompany the completion of your course of study will add to each student's confidence in moving on to the next endeavour.

The University of British Columbia is situated within the heart of Musqueam Traditional Territory. These lands have always been a place for learning. In previous centuries, what is now the UBC campus was a centre for learning for Musqueam youth, who were instructed in culture, history, and tradition, and who in turn shared their knowledge with a new generation. Belief, knowledge, ritual, technological practices, were all handed down here from generation to generation – just as they are today to students from diverse communities and backgrounds.

Musqueam thanks the University of British Columbia and President Stephen Toope for continuing to recognize these lands and the tradition of learning associated with them as an integral part of the history and well being of the Musqueam community. We also thank UBC for continuing to seek a partnership with Musqueam as co-host for special initiatives and ceremonies.

We are pleased that our lands continue to be a place for learning and sharing. We are supportive of the university's many programs and initiatives to form partnerships with the Musqueam and other First Nations communities. Education brings us all together, and each of the students convocating today is an inspiration to us all. It is our hope that after graduation you will continue contributing to the university, to our communities, to the well being of society and in doing so you will bring about positive change.

Congratulations to all University of British Columbia 2013 Graduates. We wish you further success for your future.

DESCRIPTION OF PRESIDENT'S STOLE

The Salish people are well known for being beautiful weavers along the west coast. Their weavings were used for clothing, sitting mats, and gifts. It also indicates wealth; the more blankets and gifts you gave away shows everyone your wealth.

I decided to design and weave the stole for the sole purpose in sharing the importance and wealth of the Salish people here at Musqueam. It's now a gift for the President and the students at UBC to share with each other. I hope it also relays the significance of sharing amongst each other.

The white sheep wool shows the weaving techniques still used today and the black material shows the salish form lines.

My name is Chrystal Sparrow and I come from the Musqueam Band. I'm a contemporary salish artist. My art mediums are; wood carvings, prints, jewellery, clothing and weavings.

UBC'S IMPORTANT HISTORICAL MOMENTS

The following list reflects 25 important historical moments in UBC's history:

1908

- Provincial legislature passes a new "University Act" establishing The University of British Columbia. It provides for a Chancellor, a Convocation, a President, and a Board of Governors to manage the university's administration, property and business affairs, and a Senate to administer academic matters.

1910

- After a province-wide survey, Point Grey is selected as the site of UBC's new campus.

1913

- Dr. Frank Fairchild Wesbrook appointed first President of UBC.

1915

- The University of British Columbia opens in temporary headquarters at the former MUCBC facilities (nicknamed the "Fairview Shacks" after the surrounding neighbourhood) adjacent to Vancouver General Hospital. There are three faculties: Arts and Science, Applied Science and Agriculture. Student enrolment in September is 379 and total number of full- and part-time faculty is 34.

1922

- Tired of over-crowded conditions and inadequate facilities, UBC students launch a campaign known as "Build the University" to resume construction at the Point Grey campus. With 56,000 names on a petition for the government, 1,200 students with floats, bands and banners march through the streets of downtown Vancouver to the Point Grey campus. This pilgrimage became known as the "Great Trek," as it successfully convinced the Government of BC to resume work on the Point Grey site. The "Great Trek" represents one of the greatest efforts of an undergraduate student body in support of its university and still reflects the spirit and pride of UBC students.

1925

- UBC moves to Point Grey campus.

1940

- Students contribute to the construction of Brock Hall, the university's first student union building.

1993

- U.S. President Bill Clinton and Russian President Boris Yeltsin meet at UBC during the "Vancouver Summit."

1997

- Dr. Martha C. Piper becomes UBC's new President.
- The Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation (APEC) Leaders' Meeting brings the heads of the 18 leading economies around the Pacific Rim to Vancouver.

2000

THE UNIVERSITY MACE

The University Mace is a symbol of the authority of the Chancellor. It is displayed on ceremonial occasions, most notably during the congregation ceremonies but also during the Installation of a President or Chancellor.

In the fall of 1957, the University commissioned Haida carver Bill Reid to undertake the project. Owing to Reid's heavy workload, he suggested that George Norris be asked to help design and carve the Mace. The planning of the Mace took some time and a final design was not approved until 1959.

Norris carved the Mace from a block of yew and it included a stylized thunderbird on the thick upper portion. The Mace also featured the use of copper that was prominent in Northwest Coast native art. This copper trimming was designed and prepared by Bill Reid. Norris completed the Mace in 1959 and it was first used at the Fall Congregation where the Director of Ceremonies, Malcolm McGregor, carried it for the first time.

Today the Mace is carried by the 'Macebearer' who leads the Platform Party, which includes the Chancellor, the President, and other dignitaries, onto the stage for the Congregation ceremonies.

O CANADA

Our home and native land!
True patriot love in all thy sons command.

With glowing hearts we see thee rise,
The True North strong and free!

From far and wide,
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.

God keep our land glorious and free!
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.

O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.

"When one door closes in life, another one opens." – André Gide

You'll never forget your student years at UBC, but graduation doesn't mean your relationship with the university is over. Far from it!

As you walk across the stage today to receive your degree certificate, you are joining a worldwide community of over 290,000 UBC alumni. And that's a pretty impressive network.

alumni UBC is a member-driven association that helps alumni stay connected to each other and to UBC, and supports their professional and personal growth. Its vision is to build a mutually beneficial relationship with UBC based on a shared ambition for a better world and an exceptional university.

I invite new grads to make the most of their networks and start enjoying the benefits of membership:

- Network with your wider alumni UBC community on Facebook and Twitter, or join alumni groups on LinkedIn.
- Sign up for Trek magazine and Trek Online to keep up with the latest research and campus news.
- Attend year-round The Next Step events, which help our newest alumni to network and make the transition to the working world. And regular UBC Dialogues panel events on current issues will keep your interest piqued. You can attend these events in person or catch up with them on the alumni UBC website.
- The exclusive alumni UBC A-Card will give you continued access to UBC's libraries as well as many other discounted services on and off campus.

For all things alumni UBC, please go to alumni.ubc.ca or, to get involved in a range of other opportunities available at UBC, go to startanevolution.ca

To connect with the alumni UBC office directly, please call (604) 822-3313 (Toll Free Tel: 800-883-3088) or email alumni.association@ubc.ca

Congratulations on your remarkable achievements here at UBC and please stay in touch with UBC and your alumni community!

Jeff Todd

Associate Vice President, Alumni, University of British Columbia and Executive Director of the UBC Alumni Association

UBC generates ideas that start evolutions. Ideas that change the way people think and the way the world works. We see this change as an evolution, one that improves upon what has come before and inspires the generations that follow. As UBC graduates, you have participated in this process of irreversible change for the better.

In Fall 2011, UBC launched start an evolution – the most ambitious alumni engagement and fundraising campaign in Canadian history. The aim of the campaign is to actively engage 50,000 alumni annually in the life of the university and to raise $1.5 billion by 2015 for student learning, research and community engagement.

By March 31, 2013, we were on course to achieve both our engagement and fundraising goals, with over $1.1 billion dollars raised and over 45,000 alumni like you engaged in some way in the life of the university.

You can help start an evolution through involvement and investment. This can be as simple as reconnecting with UBC or making a donation. It really is up to you.

We invite you to get involved and combine your energy with ours. Together with UBC, you can help create solutions for the issues you care about. This is your opportunity to make a contribution with long lasting effects. This is your chance to help start an evolution and support thinking that can change the world.

To find out more about how you can get involved, please go to startanevolution.ca
